

ADMM1152 - Outpatient Coding

Credits:	4 (3/1/0)
Description:	Medical codes are used to identify procedures and diagnoses that pertain to a patient's health care encounter. This course is an introduction to medical coding and emphasizes coding in medical offices and other outpatient care facilities. Course topics include ICD-10 (International Classification of Disease 10th revision), CPT (Current Procedural Terminology) and HCPCS (Healthcare Common Procedural Coding System), and legal and ethical issues related to outpatient coding practices.
Prerequisites:	ADMM1104 Medical Language Applications I OR HLTH1110 Introduction to Anatomy & Physiology
Corequisites:
Pre/Corequisites*:
Competencies:	<ol> <li>Demonstrate professional work habits of medical coders.</li> <li>Explain CPT (Current Procedural Terminology) coding manual format.</li> <li>Determine documentation guidelines.</li> <li>Determine correct E/M (evaluation and management) procedure codes.</li> <li>Determine correct anesthesia procedure codes.</li> <li>Determine correct pathology and laboratory procedure codes.</li> <li>Determine correct surgery procedure codes.</li> <li>Determine correct HCPCS II (Healthcare Common Procedural Coding System Level II) procedure codes.</li> <li>Determine correct usage of modifiers.</li> <li>Explain ICD (International Classification of Disease) manual format.</li> <li>Determine correct health status (Z) codes.</li> <li>Determine correct external cause of injury codes.</li> <li>Utilize the Table of Drugs and Chemicals to select correct codes.</li> <li>Utilize neoplasm table to select correct codes.</li> <li>Determine correct diagnosis codes.</li> <li>Explain third-party payer requirements.</li> <li>Utilize computer technology.</li> <li>Determine correct medicine procedure codes.</li> </ol>
MnTC goal areas:	None

*Can be taking as a Prerequisite or Corequisite.